The first of a two-week biography exploring the music and life of a defining voice of the German Romantic Era. In his formative year as a pianist, Brahms befriends Robert and Clara Schumann, and with their support and later with the violinist Joseph Joachim, develops his musical voice.

Brahms, Johannes, Part I | Exploring Music

While mostly known for her extravagant lifestyle and for allegedly saying, "Let them eat cake," Marie Antoinette loved music and was a patron of the arts. She studied the harpsichord, fortepiano, and the harp, which she played admirably, and could sight read "like a first-rate professor," according to the memoirs of Madame Campan, her lady-in-waiting.
