Ultra Swank is a magazine styled blog that takes you back in time into the kitsch, chic, swank and camp living of the 1940s to the 1970s. We mostly focus on the design, style, and fashion of the happy-go-lucky and space-age-living mentality of that era - but also on the music and movies that takes you back to happier times.

So I don't think Big Hit could ever be a part of "the big three" at this point, since "the big three" has referred to SM/YG/JYP for years now. If anything it'd be more like "the new big three" or something like that. Either way, Big Hit is still nowhere near YG/SM's level, so they can't really be called that right now.
