South Pacific is a musical composed by Richard Rodgers, with lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein II and book by Hammerstein and Joshua Logan. The work premiered in 1949 on Broadway and was an immediate hit, running for 1,925 performances. The plot is based on James A. Michener's Pulitzer Prize-winning 1947 book Tales of the South Pacific and combines elements of several of those stories.

Quite a number of stories about Waverly Hill involve the body chute and the ghosts and shadows that haunt the tunnel, and of doctors who opened up the bodies of dead patients and drained them. Other examples of Waverly Hills stories involve ghosts of nurses who were working at the hospital. Many stories about Waverly Hills have to do with shadows, doors closing on their own and ghostly spirits ...
