True Wedding Night Stories from the Victorian Boudoir

Nurse Daisy Smythe knows her position with handsome, dominant Dr. Hornington is a trifle unusual- especially since it so often involves being over his knee for a sound spanking. But working in his prestigious practice is worth the occasional irregularity- such as letting him take her hard, bare, and completely unprotected. It's all in the name of medical science, as he assures her she's part of ...

Part way through, it became clear that the abominable bride was not just a spoof visit to the Victorian period and Sherlock Holmes's true time. But no, the episode returned to modern day and connected to the end of the latest third series as Sherlock lies in a trance on a plane and fights with Moriarty in his mind palace.
