The Wind in the Willows is a children's novel by British novelist Kenneth Grahame, first published in 1908. Alternately slow-moving and fast-paced, it focuses on four anthropomorphised animals (Mole, Rat, Toad, and Badger) in a pastoral version of Edwardian England. The novel is notable for its mixture of mysticism, adventure, morality, and camaraderie, and celebrated for its evocation of the ...

This folk-style hymn is based on a legend that Jesus travelled in England as a child, accompanied by his parents. The author and composer are unclear: many people attribute it to folk-group Blackmore's Night, while Alan Bell says that he composed and wrote the lyrics, and others claim that it is an 18th century Irish folk tune.
